

You are invited to join us for
“A Weekend at the Bay”

An educational retreat for women with bleeding disorders

Friday, September 10 – Sunday, September 12, 2010
The Hyatt Regency Chesapeake Bay Resort
Cambridge, Maryland

This retreat, hosted by the Hemophilia Foundation of Maryland is designed to offer women with bleeding disorders the opportunity to learn more about their bleeding disorders in a beautiful, supportive environment. This program has been developed especially for women over age 21 who have von Willebrand disease, hemophilia or other factor deficiencies. There is no charge for you to attend.

Come join us at the beautiful Hyatt Regency Chesapeake Bay Resort in Cambridge, MD where you will find a relaxed atmosphere with plenty of opportunity to reduce stress.

You'll rediscover ways to have fun and increase awareness of the larger support network that is available to you and your family. The resort is located on the Eastern Shore and is approximately a 2-hour drive from Baltimore and DC.

Sessions at the retreat are designed to further your understanding of bleeding disorders.

The program will encourage you to live positively, communicate more effectively and develop a support network with others in the area dealing with similar situations.

Please see the attached agenda for further information about the weekend's events.

To register, call CSL Behring Consumer Affairs at (888) 508-6978 or Emma Miller at 410-661-2307 or E-mail miller8043@comcast.net by August 24th.

Space in the program is limited. Please RSVP quickly.

This program is an educational event sponsored by CSL Behring.
